

Lower your child's flu risk

Immunization against influenza is recommended for all children 6 to 59 months of age. Talk to your doctor, nurse, pharmacist or local public health office about immunizing your child against influenza.