

PNEUMOCOCCAL DISEASE

---

Pneumococcal disease is caused by bacteria that can result in serious complications, such as meningitis, pneumonia and blood infections.

CHILDREN UNDER TWO YEARS OF AGE
ARE AMONG THOSE AT HIGHEST RISK.

Pneumococcal vaccination is part of routine childhood immunizations.

Adapted from CDC resource.